ACTION: The Board approved the report of the Justice 21 Committee Chair.

ITEM #17 - REPORT FROM THE AD HOC COMMITTEE: REVENUE GENERATING COMMITTEE CHAIR

Executive Officer Héctor Delgado verbally presented on the activities of the Revenue Generating Committee. In the previous year, the Committee looked into foundation funding, and determined that most foundations will not fund operating expenses, but prefer to fund special initiatives. The Committee also discussed the possibility of running capital campaigns for general operation and legacy campaigns. Another suggestion is the possibility of forming a loosely related foundation to generate capital for social justice oriented scholarship and action. Finally, the Committee may consider hiring a commission-based capital campaigner.

ACTION: The Board approved the continuing existence of the Revenue Generating Committee.

ACTION: The Board approved the verbal report of the Revenue Generating Committee Chair.

ITEM #18– REPORT FROM THE AD HOC COMMITTEE: TRANSNATIONAL INITIATIVE COMMITTEE CHAIR

John Dale, Board Member and Chair of the Transnational Initiative Committee, presented on the activities of the committee. The Committee organized a 1-day mini-conference on human rights and globalization, to take place August 12, 2013, which was supported in part by outside donations. Via this mini-conference, significant connections are being built with various scholars in various locations around the globe.
