

SUBJECT: SSSP: End of the Year Reminders

December 1, 2017

Dear SSSP Member,

We have a few announcements and reminders to bring to your attention. For more information on each, click on the links below.

1. Nominate a book for the 2017 C. Wright Mills Award – deadline is December 15, 2017.
2. The 2018 General Election ballot preview is available. Voting will begin on February 15 and the poll will close on March 15, 2018.
3. Remember to renew your membership for 2018, if you have not already.
4. Submit a paper for the SSSP 2018 Annual Meeting – deadline is January 31, 2018.
5. Apply for one of the SSSP Division's Student Paper Competitions or Outstanding Scholarship Awards. The deadline for all Student Paper Competitions is January 31, 2018. Deadlines vary for the Outstanding Scholarship Awards. In order to be considered for any of the Student Paper Competitions, applicants are required to submit their papers through the Annual Meeting Call for Papers. This will ensure that winning papers are both designated and included in the program. Please note that students may only submit to one division and that each division has its own submission process.
6. The Racial/Ethnic Minority Graduate Fellowship deadline is February 1, 2018.

7. Come join the conversation. Social Problems, the official journal of the SSSP, has established a social media presence. View the most recently-published articles as well as additional content like editorial commentary, vodcast interviews with authors, practical advice for professional development, funding opportunities, and general disciplinary announcements. 8. The American Sociological Association (ASA) knows that sociologists around the country are doing important publicly engaged work, and wants to highlight some of these contributions to raise awareness of the value of sociological expertise. The ASA is now collecting profiles of “sociology serving organizations.” They are seeking people who have been actively engaged in pro bono projects with public sectors or non-profit organizations for which sociological expertise has been used. Happy Holidays,
The Administrative Office
