OPTIONAL WALKING TOURS:

SSSP is pleased to offer two walking tours.

African Burial Ground National Monument

Saturday, August 10, 10:00am–2:00pm (including travel time to/from the site via public buses)

Ticket Fee: $20 (including MetroCard and donation to the National Park Service (limit 20):

In 1991, construction work for a federal office building on 290 Broadway uncovered a massive 6-acre burial ground with over 15,000 remains of enslaved and free Africans. Dating back to a time between mid-1630s and 1795, the Burial Ground is the nation's earliest and largest African burial site. The tour will illuminate the lives of enslaved and free African laborers who built the fort, mills, farms, and the town of New Amsterdam during the earliest colonial history of New York. The outside monument combines the history and symbolism of the African diaspora to commemorate the sacred ground of ancestral interment. The tour group will meet in the hotel lobby (near the floral arrangement) and promptly depart at 10:00am and walk to the bus stop on 42nd street to take the bus downtown to the monument.

Grand Central Terminal: Transportation, Architecture, and Preservation

Sunday, August 11, 10:00am–12:00pm

Ticket Fee: $20 (limit 25):

Grand Central Terminal is one of the New York City's most treasured architectural wonders and a symbol of the city's transportation history and urbanization. Its vast underground structures hide far greater areas than are revealed on the street level. This tour will showcase the marvelous architecture and tell the stories of the railroad systems, the innovative engineering that accommodated the expansion of the city, and the preservation movement that saved the landmark in the 1970s. The tour group will meet in the hotel lobby (near the floral arrangement) and promptly depart at 10:00am.

OPTIONAL ONE-DAY WORKSHOPS:

Community-Based Participatory Action Research (limit 50)

Monday, August 12, 9:00am–4:30pm, Location: Roosevelt Hotel

Registration Fee: $50 for employed registrants or $25 for unemployed/activist/student registrants

The Community Research and Development Division is hosting an interactive workshop for researchers who use or are interested in community-based participatory action research. The workshop will (1) offer a foundational orientation to the purpose and process of CBPAR; and (2) provide a context within which CBPAR scholars, both new and old, can learn from each other and build a stronger network. This one-day workshop will be divided into two sections. In the morning, Section I will cover the following topics: (1) What is CBPAR and Why Do It?; (2) Capacity Building and Community Partnerships; and (3) CBPAR Methodology – Balancing Methodological Rigor with Community Need. In the afternoon, Section II will cover the following topics: (1) Data dissemination: To Whom, How, and Where; (2) Publishing and Funding: Challenges and Opportunities; and (3) Maintaining Partnerships and Building Steam. The workshop will be collaboratively delivered by Drs. Charlotte Ryan, Felicia Sullivan, and Jessica Lucero. The workshop will be interactive in nature and provide opportunities for attendees to discuss their CBPAR research ideas and receive feedback. For researchers with prior training and/or experience, there will be a breakout session provided to discuss their work and concerns. Workshop fee includes morning coffee.

Institutional Ethnography (limit 50)

Monday, August 12, 10:00am–4:00pm, Location: Roosevelt Hotel

Registration Fee: $75 for employed registrants or $50 for unemployed/activist/student registrants

The Institutional Ethnography Division is hosting an interactive workshop for researchers who use or are interested in institutional ethnography – the method of inquiry developed by Dorothy E. Smith. The workshop features a keynote presentation as well as opportunities for large and small-group discussion and learning. The workshop will provide people with opportunities to engage directly with institutional ethnographies in the proposal, analysis, and final writing stages. People who are interested in sharing and receiving feedback on a research proposal, article manuscript, conference paper, or other piece of writing during the small-group discussions should submit these documents to Nicola Waters nwaters@tru.ca and Cathy Ringham clringha@ucalgary.ca by July 1, 2019. Workshop fee includes morning coffee.
