- Is the meeting in-person next year?

Yes. We are very excited to plan the 2022 SSSP Annual Meeting in Los Angeles. The Board of Directors approved an “in-person only” meeting. We look forward to seeing everyone after not having an in-person meeting for two years. We will follow CDC recommendations at the time of the meeting and respect all laws or regulations in Los Angeles and at the Omni Los Angeles Hotel at California Plaza governing meetings/mass gatherings.

- How do I submit my paper/extended abstract?

Papers/extended abstracts for presentations must be submitted to a session via our online submission process, https://www.sssp1.org/2022_Call_for_Papers, no later than 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time) on January 31, 2022 in order to be considered. Once submitted, a paper may not be moved.

- Am I required to submit a full paper?

No. Papers are not required for the initial submission. However, all accepted papers must be sent to the session presider and/or discussant by June 30.

- How many times can I appear on the program?

A participant may appear on the program twice as a paper author. A person may appear on the program twice as a sole-author. There is no limit on co-authored papers.

In addition, a participant may also appear on the program as an organizer, presider, facilitator, moderator, discussant, presider/discussant, panelist, or critic.

- Can I submit an individually-proposed session?

No. The Program Committee will not be accepting individually-proposed sessions.

- What does it mean to submit to a “Papers in the Round” session?

Roundtable sessions are usually comprised of several tables, each with a different theme. Each roundtable consists of 4 to 5 paper presentations and should have an established scholar serving as presider and/or discussant. Discussion proceeds simultaneously at all tables. At each table, the discussant leader(s) will introduce the topic and facilitate discussion among all participants. These are informal opportunities to present and discuss works in progress and are somewhat self-organized. Authors in turn should start out detailing their projects or papers for about 10-15 minutes, after which participants around the table (authors and others) are invited to offer suggestions, reflect on content, and provide constructive feedback. Roundtable sessions will not have audio-visual equipment.

- What does it mean to submit to a “Critical Dialogue” session?

Critical Dialogue sessions include short (5 minute) presentations by up to 8 authors followed by facilitated dialogue that critically explores connections among the papers. The audience will have an opportunity to participate in the dialogue as well. Emphasis is placed on exploring interesting connections between papers with a broadly similar theme. This provides the opportunity for both presenters and the audience to make new and deeper connections between their own unique insights and presented ideas. The presider/discussant (same person serves in both roles) has an important role of moderating and facilitating the dialogue, while being sure that presentation times are followed. Critical Dialogue sessions will not have audio-visual equipment.
