From: Deborah L. Little, Chair
2021-2022 Kathleen S. Lowney Mentoring Award Committee

This year's committee had multiple email exchanges to discuss and choose the 2022 winner of the Kathleen S. Lowney Mentoring Award. Committee members included the chair, Dr. Mangala Subramaniam, Dr. Giovanni Burgos, and Dr. Jerome Krase. I distributed the nomination materials for all committee members for review. There were 6 commendable candidates, and some received more than 1 nomination. A review of the votes of each committee member revealed a majority for Dr. David Embrick. He was named the winner for this year and notified by me and the SSSP office.

Dr. Mangala Subramaniam is the Chair-Elect and will serve as chair of next year's award committee.

It was an honor to serve as chair of this important committee and a privilege to read nomination materials for so many excellent mentors.

Respectfully submitted,

Deborah Little
Chair, 2021-2022 Kathleen S. Lowney Mentoring Award Committee
