STUDENT APPLICATION PROCESS

It is the candidate's responsibility to make sure that his or her application meets all requirements to be considered eligible for evaluation. Complete application packets should be sent to the SSSP Administrative Office. Application materials will be supplied to the committee for their consideration; please therefore print single-sided and use paperclips instead of staples. Make sure your application is complete before mailing, as incomplete packets will not be reviewed. Each packet must include the following:

- ___ Racial/Ethnic Minority Graduate Fellowship Application (complete and print the application and send it in with the rest of your application);
- ___ Official Transcript with seal from the student's Graduate Program Registrar (digital transcripts will not be accepted);
- ___ Resume or Curriculum Vitae;
- ___ Three letters of recommendation addressing the student's work and progress in program, including one from the student's dissertation advisor. The letter from the advisor should address the financial need of the applicant, and should also note that the student will have defended the dissertation proposal and have achieved advanced status in the doctoral program (completed course work, examinations, and approval of their dissertation prospectus) by the end of the Spring 2018 academic year.
- ___ Each letter should be placed in a sealed envelope with author's signature over the seal. Letters not included in the packet will not be accepted. It is the candidate's responsibility to make sure that all letters of recommendation are signed over the flap by the authors of the letters and included in the application packet.
- ___ Personal statement of commitment to a career of scholar activism;
- ___ Fifteen or more double spaced pages of your dissertation proposal;
- ___ Budget proposal
