

This research has been approved by the University of California, Los Angeles IRB.

Participants Needed for a Paid Research Study: Up to $100

Participation Criteria

- You identify as a Black or African American parent.
- You have at least one biological Black-White biracial adolescent who is between the ages 11 to 18.
- You are available for one 60-to-90 minute virtual interview about how you talk to your child about race and racial identity.
- You agree to allow your biracial child to participate in one 30-to-45-minute virtual interview about similar topics.
- Optional: You are available to participate in one 15-minute virtual discussion and observation task that includes both you and your biracial child.

If you are interested in participating, please complete the brief eligibility survey using the QR code. If you have any questions, please contact me at dcdissertationproject@gmail.com. If you know anyone who might fit the criteria, please forward this along. Your participation is voluntary and all of your responses will be kept confidential. Thank you in advance for your interest!

