- 9 Call for papers

Message from the Chair

Dear Members,

I want to congratulate Dr. Ellen Benoit on being elected the incoming chair of SSSP's Drink and Drugs Division. Ellen's two-year term will begin this summer at the annual meeting in Denver.

The Division has a full roster of sessions scheduled for our annual meeting — over 30 papers will be presented during the meeting that cover a range of issues significant to the study of drugs and alcohol.

This year's Reception will be held off-site at the Blake Street Vault, which also provides members an opportunity to explore the LoDo section of Denver. The venue is located approximately 1 mile from the Grand Hyatt Denver in close proximity to restaurants and other nightlife (see page 4 for details).

I encourage you to review a listing of some recently published articles by our members (page 3), which indicate high levels of scholarship and significance to the fields of sociology and drug/alcohol research. Also, see the call for papers for a special issue focusing on current perspectives on marijuana and society (page 9).

Lastly, it's been a pleasure serving as the Chair of the Drinking and Drugs Division for the past two years. My thanks to all the D&D members and SSSP staff who've contributed to an enjoyable and productive two years.

Safe travels to Denver...

Best,

Steve Lankenau

CALL FOR PAPER SUBMISSIONS from Humboldt Journal of Social Relations (HJSR), Special Issue on Current Perspectives on Marijuana and Society

This special issue of the Humboldt Journal of Social Relations (HJSR) features current research into marijuana production, control, and use. The issue welcomes university affiliated submissions as well as submissions from those associated with marijuana policy. The Co-Directors of the newly formed Humboldt Institute for Interdisciplinary Marijuana Research will be offering an overall reflection on the issue.

Submissions are due on September 15, 2012 and invited in the following areas:

1. Marijuana Policy Options – Critical Examination of Legalization, decriminalization, harm reduction, depenalization, taxation/regulation, and land use
2. Marijuana Production and Use – Environmental/ecological and economic impacts, as well as mental health issues and social norms and attitudes
2. Marijuana Control – Local, State, and Federal interdiction/regulation initiatives
3. Open Submissions – Current Perspectives on Marijuana and Society

Authorship: All authors are encouraged to collaborate with others inside or outside academia. Interdisciplinary submissions are welcome.

Manuscript Submission:

1. Manuscripts should be in 12 point font, doubled spaced and generally not exceed 8500 words. To facilitate blind review, authors should incorporate a cover page that includes an article title, author contact information, a 75 word or less biographical statement and a 150 word or less abstract. Format citations, tables, figures & references using American Psychological Association style.
2. Email hjsr@humboldt.edu with the message subject “HJSR: Marijuana Submission” and attach your submission in .doc, docx or .rtf format.
3. Via overland mail send a check for $15 made out to “HJSR” including a note with your contact information and the date on which you sent your electronic submission.
4. Submission implies commitment to publish in HJSR. Authors should not simultaneously submit to another journal. Manuscripts should not have been published elsewhere.
