Dear Colleagues,

Let me begin by saying what an honor and privilege it is to have been elected to serve the next two years as Family Division Chair.

Since this is my first newsletter as Chair of the Family Division, and I was not at the 2016 SSSP annual meeting in Seattle, I want to take this opportunity to briefly introduce myself.

I am currently a Lecturer in the Sanford School of Social and Family Dynamics at Arizona State University. My research centers on exploring working mothers and how they negotiate having a maternal body in the face of paid work and motherhood demands.

Pictured above are my kids. My son is a freshman here at Arizona State University. I have a daughter in high school, a daughter in middle school, and a daughter who attends the preschool here on ASU's campus. The five of us moved to Arizona in July... Yes, it was hot.

I look forward to a productive year and hope to meet you all in Montreal!

SSSP is looking for the next Editor of Social Problems

SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF SOCIAL PROBLEMS

The Society for the Study of Social Problems (SSSP) is soliciting applications for the position of Editor of the Society's flagship journal, Social Problems. The three-year term will begin with the operation of the new editorial office in mid-year 2018. The new editor will be responsible for editing and promoting Volumes 66-68 (years 2019-2021). We seek a diverse pool of editorial candidates. Applicants must be members or become members of the SSSP by the time of their application and continue to be a member during their tenure as editor.

Candidates must have distinguished scholarly records, previous editorial experience, strong organizational and management skills, and the ability to work and communicate well with others, including with scholars in academic and non-academic settings. For a full description of the position and application process, please visit: (http://www.sssp1.org/file/announcements/Social\_Problems\_Editor.pdf). Deadline for applications is January 15, 2017.

Please direct all inquiries, nominations, expressions of interest, and application materials to Dr. Corey Dolgon at cdolgon@stonehill.edu.

2017 Annual Meeting Stuff

Call for Submissions: SSSP Family Division Graduate Student Paper Award

The Family Division announces its 2017 Graduate Student Paper Competition. Papers should be of a professional quality and may relate to any aspect of the sociology of the family. Submitting authors must be enrolled as graduate students at the time of their submission. To be eligible, a paper may not be published, accepted, or under review for publication. Papers must be student authored; they can be authored by one or more students, but may not be co-authored with a faculty member or non-student. Papers should be no more than 25 pages in length, including all notes, references, and tables. Please e-mail papers and a cover letter specifying that the paper is to be considered for the Family Division Graduate Student Paper Competition to the Division Chair Dr. Jennifer Haskin at jhaskin5@asu.edu. In addition, authors are required to submit their papers through the annual meeting Call for Papers online system. Submissions must be received no later than midnight on January 31, 2017. The winner and any runners-up will be announced in Spring 2017. The first place winner will receive a modest cash stipend, a plaque of recognition, student membership, conference registration, and an opportunity to present her/his paper at the upcoming SSSP meetings in Montreal. Please include your name, institutional affiliation, and contact information in the body of your e-mail. Also indicate that your paper is being submitted for the Family Division Graduate Student Paper Competition in the subject line of your e-mail. Please note that you may compete in only one SSSP division.
