Society for the Study of Social Problems
Summer 2005 (short and sweet edition!)

THE 2005 MEETING IS ALMOST HERE – CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU IN PHILLY, AUGUST 12-14!

FAMILY DIVISION BUSINESS MEETING – YES, YOU SHOULD DEFINITELY COME!

Sunday, from 8:30-10:10 a.m. in the Constitution Room – join us for what will be a fun and productive meeting. Our agenda consists of going over the budget (this takes about 30 seconds), talking about this year's meeting, and planning sessions for next year's meeting. This is a great way to get involved! Also, we'll likely figure out who will be chairing and reviewing papers for the graduate student paper competition. Come and meet your new division chair, Nancy Mezey, too. We hope to see you there! If you have ideas for next year's Family Division-sponsored or joint division-sponsored sessions, feel free to email them to Michelle Janning at janninmy@whitman.edu.

GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION UPDATE

Thanks to the many people who submitted papers for the 2005 paper competition, and thanks to the competition chair and reviewers! Here are the results:

First Prize: "Is Justice Contextual? A Cross-National Analysis of Women's Perceptions of Fairness of the Division of Household Labor," by Shannon N. Davis, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Second Prize: "She Earns, He Earns: Exploring Race and Class Variation in Wives' Contributions to Couples' Income," by Sarah Winslow, University of Pennsylvania

Third Prize: "In Families or as Individuals?: Theoretical and Methodological Problems in the Study of Women's Class," Karen Albright, The University of California, Berkeley

Check the final program to see if and when these papers will be presented.
