

July 12 PCID Division Meeting

Attendance:

Anthony Abraham Jack
Adam Nicholson
Tracy Vargas
Kenya Goods
Rahim Kurwa
Crystal Moore
Elizabeth Korver-Glenn
Stephen Tomczak
Annette Mackay
(9 total)

2021 Awards:

Graduate Student Paper Award – Adam Nicholson, “Beyond Behavior: Prevalences, Penalties, Ethno-racial Inequalities in Poverty”

The paper will be presented at the 2021 meeting as well.

And congratulations to Adam for a successful PhD defense!

And thank you to Dr. Plummer for chairing the committee

Michael Harrington Award Co-Winners – Matthew Clair and Jacob William Faber

Thank you to Anthony Abraham Jack for chairing the committee

2021 Conference –

There is a great line up of sessions, including several co-sponsored ones. Please also look out for the author meets critics. See newsletter for details.

2022 Award Committee Volunteers:

Graduate Student Paper Award – Adam Nicholson

Harrington Award – Anthony Abraham Jack (not as chair)

Will continue to solicit participation (need 3 total for each).

Annette Mackay can serve on either committee if it needs a third member.

2022 Session Brainstorm:

3 solo, 7 co-sponsored

Ideas:

Black Feminism / Black Feminist Epistemologies – Kenya Goods – willing to organize/preside

Reimagining Power in Labor – Annette Mackay – willing to organize/preside

Welfare State and COVID – Rahim Kurwa – willing to organize/preside

The Impending Mortgage Crisis and Racial Inequalities in Housing – Kenya Goods, Elizabeth Korver Glenn – willing to organize/preside, Annette Mackay also willing to organize/preside

Education Before During and After COVID-19 – Anthony Abraham Jack willing to organize/preside

Du Boisian Lens on Poverty, Race, and Class – need to contact Zawadi Rucks-Ahidiana to ask about organizing/presiding

Organize – means you review submissions

Presiding – means you preside over the session at the conference

Question – do we need an abstract for each session?